

Off the Beaten Track

The face of RTE's No Frontiers, Kathryn Thomas is Ireland's best-known globetrotter. Stepping off the beaten track, here she travels to such exotic locations as Antarctica, Papua New Guinea, Ethiopia, Mali, Venezuela, Outback Australia and the Himalayas. Kathryn's encounters with these places and their people make for riveting, compelling travel writing. She takes the reader by the hand and brings them into the heart of the countries, painting vivid scenes such as the dramatic view from the roof of the world in the Himalayas; the exuberance of Senegalese musicians and dancers; the awe-inspiring grandeur of such wonders as Uluru in Australia or Angel Falls in Venezuela; and the warmth and generosity of the isolated villages of Papua New Guinea. Off the Beaten Track also offers practical guidance on travelling to such out-of-the-way places.

Whether you're an armchair traveller or a daring backpacker, join Kathryn on her greatest adventures!
